Classroom News

Miscellaneous Tidbits

Social Studies News: The students have shown awesome hard work to research and prepare a speech on their U.S. President or First Lady. Your child must be prepared to present his/her speech with their 2 props this coming Thursday, February 13th. Their books are also due that day.

Our Valentine Party is next week on Thursday from 2:15-3:00! Students may bring cards to pass out to the class, but are not required to. We have 21 students in our class. If your student does bring valentine's to share it must be non-food items. Students are welcome to bring in a shoe box to decorate. I will have bags for students to decorate and use as well.

3rd quarter Parent-Teacher conferences are coming up on February 24th-27th. These conferences are by teacher/parent request only. If you did not receive a request note, then you do not have to meet with me for a conference. If you would like to request a conference with me for a conference please contact me.

Have a LOVE-ly weekend!

Subject Matter

Reading:

This week we worked on a variety of skills like reviewing cause/effect and text organization, reading and learning about Abraham Lincoln's life and contributions to America. Next week we will learn about George Washington and target skills with Valentine's themed activities!

Grammar:

This week we wrote narrative stories about the perfect snow day.

Spelling:

We will NOT have a new spelling list next week.

Please also keep practicing the sight word flashcards at home.

Math:

This week worked with to represent 3-digit numbers in many forms, and change hundreds and tens. Next week we will work to find patterns on a hundreds chart, skip count by 10's and 100's, and compare/order 3-digit numbers.

Science:

We are beginning to learn about landforms and bodies of water that shape our Earth.

S.S.:

We will focus on gathering research and preparing a report to share a biographical speech of a former U.S. President or First Lady.
